MS NAR RAIDS EAST COAST!

Well, we recently completed a 12-state (and DC), 2-major league ballpark, 15-day whirlwind raid of points north and east. Could easily have included two more states and a province in the itinerary. We saw a Cubs-Reds game in Cincinnati, lots of my relatives in Michigan, and most of a Chisox-Tigers double header in Detroit. We attended AvalonCon with Paul and Lisa Saunders and ran into the likes of Brad Wilson, FlapJack McHugh, the Martins, and the Anchors there. We raided The Wargame Depot in Beltsville, Md. We drove about 2850 miles--something over 48 hrs in the car.

We returned to find the Braves still in 1st place, the grass hideously tall, and 13 of 43 game positions technically NMR--and four more in need of clarification. In case you've wondered about it, here's my method for putting out this rag. As things come in, I enter them into an APPLEWORKS word processor file. When the deadline strikes or when the day's mail arrives (whichever is later), I start calling NMR folk collect. This will usually kill Saturday and half of Sunday. On Sunday, I break the big file into smaller ones and feed them into GRAPHICWRITER III, do some of the fancy stuff, and wait for the call backs. Generally, this forces me into a Monday night press run (or maybe later). The last two months I was able to take two hours leave and get the issues run off, labeled, and mailed in the morning. The copy company now opens later, so this should get out early Wednesday. If the few chronically late players could get their orders in on time (HINT, HINT), things might go more smoothly and I can shorten the turnaround. Anyway, I then update the AW file off the printed copy, load it into the modem program's copy buffer, add carriage returns after each line and insert spaces on each blank line, save the file, and then send it over GENIE and INET.

ENGLAND BEGINS NORTHERN CAMPAIGN! GERMANY BESIEGED!!

Fall 1902

Germany appears to be the object of AEF aggression as the three Powers tighten their Einkreisung. Italy will arrive too late to partake of the feast. England's attempted annexation of Scandinavia is likely to bring the Tsar--and surely the Sultan--in against the allies. Only sharp diplomacy by Berlin to create a crack in the alliance can avert another German disaster next year. Italy may well be the key player here, able to create counterthreats into the weak Austrian underbelly--especially as the growing French naval presence in the Med is such a proximate threat to Italian security.

Embassy Beat

LONDON (Whitehall)--In keeping with the promise to protect the Scandinavian peninsula, British forces are bolstering Russian forces in most areas. The General Staff has sent several officers to assist the Russians in Command and Control which the Russians have demonstrated a definite need. Hopefully the aid will be in time to thwart the German menace.

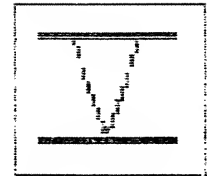

PARIS--With grim determination the combined forces of the French 2nd Division and light tank divisions, the Spanish Blue Division, the Portuguese Cavalier Division, and the highly skilled British Grand Fleet launched a massive assault to dislodge the Huns from the Lowlands. The effort is titanic both fighting-wise and logistically. However, being so close to BUR, the troops always had plenty to drink.

The French fleet cruises the Med to build support in her colonies and with her allies. Captain Gerard of the cruiser Titus was quoted as saying, "If we visit one more Spanish port, I will have had enough flowers thrown at me to open a chain of flower shops."

EMPIRE & REICH RAVISHED! TURKEY INVADED!

FALL 1902

It seems we should add Austria to our list of endangered nations from last time. Indeed, AGT together barely outnumber Tsar Jack's war machine, which will remain the dominant force in the East for the near future. Pope Brad may be forced to prop up the tottering Emperor to prevent becoming Bearfood sooner rather than later. The Sultanate may already be doomed. Meanwhile in the West, France and Germany are busy invading each other whilst perfidious Albion awaits the Lion's share. A Russian build of F STP(nc) would be both justified and antagonizing.

ERRATA: Tur A BUL was destroyed last time due to lack of legal retreat. Boris apologizes for any inconvenience the typo might have engendered.

Embassy Beat

VIENNA--The Austrian government issued a strong statement today condemning the Italian occupation of TRI and declared that if these forces do not withdraw immediately that a state of war will exist between Austria and Italy.

Boris World Press Review

Moscow Aristocrat--Continued fighting in the Serbia-Croatian area has forced the Russian government to dispatch troops to quell the destructive civil war. General Vladimir Coughtroski has commented that his troops can stop the immediate bloodshed, but fears that the deep cultural differences will cause outbreaks of bloodletting until the end of the century.

COMMIES play card 59, "Five Year Plan Alteration". MMF loses 1 IP on Krakemheds (E).

Funeral Commission: COMMIES declare 7 IP on X. Boris nominates Y. I votes "NYET"; X abstains; PCS declares 1 IP on Y, votes "DA", E votes "NYET"; COMMIES play 4 IP on Q; Tigran votes "NYET!" Nomination fails, Badenuff ages 1 SP to 55, then nominates Zenjarplan (Q). I, Y, & E vote "NYET", rest abstain. Nomination fails, Badenuff ages 1 SP to 56 and becomes Party Chief.

We will break the action here because the proffered Replacement orders had several procedural errors in them (like having 6 Candidates in 5 slots and promoting the wrong guys by age). Barring a card play, X will wave this year. Due next time are Replacement, Rehabilitation, and Parade Phases. Anybody got more than 7 IP on Badenuff?

Citing an impending state of matrimony, Ken has resigned from the game. Boris and Ms Nar offer their congratulations and hope he'll be back with us once he's accustomed to his new life. Meanwhile Rick Egtvedt has graciously assumed the reins of Harkonnen power, so there is no loss of tempo.

THE HUNT

Puffenberger Ties for Lead 4th Chase to Begin!

Inspired by Lipton's book, "An Exaltation of Larks", this is a word game where we propose a noun and the players are asked to propose a collective noun to fit, such as "flock" for "sheep", or "pride" for lions. The first player to score 10 points wins six free issues of this rag. The Hunt is run in "Chases" or rounds. We're just finishing our third. Here are the results, fresh from the fields:

GM to Dan: Hmmm, I figure 3.5 as belt scored .5, not .333. Sorry about that.

ST PETERSBURG--The Tsar issued a public apology to the Kaiser for the accidental intrusion into Germany by a Russian army. A withdrawal is being attempted.

BORIS WORLD PRESS REVIEW

Addis Ababba Sun (Ethiopia)--The Russian Consul has reported that the Czar's government is near collapse. Orders sent to the field armies and the navy have been misunderstood and counter-ordered to the point that the forces are at a standstill. The Russian government has made no response to inquiries by the Consul for continued trade, citing more pressing matters. Considering the Ethiopian Brigade assisting the Russian army, the Consul has become quite concerned that those forces must be withdrawn.

We have researched the alleged problems and have discovered that the customers have received exactly what was ordered. Customers should read the fine print. It has recently come to my attention that the river we just bridged at Washington, DC, is commonly called the Potomac, not the Ohio. Mrs. Watson of the research branch is currently attempting to locate the Ohio River. Perhaps we should be the Baltimore and Potomac Railroad?

for next month. We expect to be filling a need for this type of service and as a result a long and profitable future is anticipated. Additional investors are encouraged to sign up and participate in future profits.

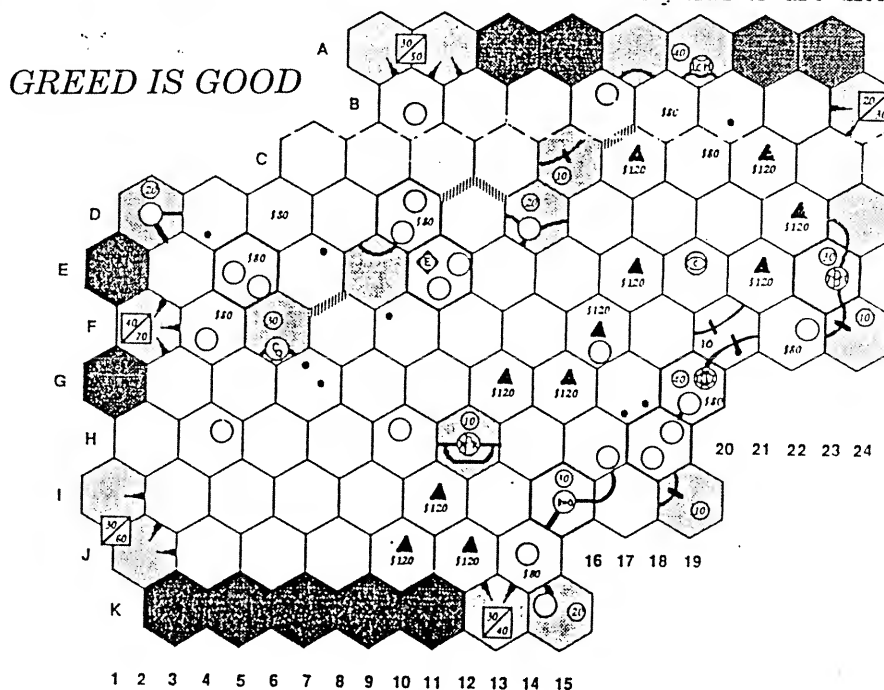

Messrs. J. Bliss and P. Zieske announce the founding and beginning of operations of the New York, New Haven, and Hartford Railroad Company (the "NYNH&H") with the intent of building a transportation system with a lucrative New York to Boston route. The company expects its initial capitalization to allow it to allow it to lay all currently planned trackage (including two major bridges), build an intermediary station in Providence, and enough rolling stock for the foreseeable future. The company also has in the planning stages possible routes to Albany and New Jersey.

BORIS to GK: Your letter dated the 5th was postmarked the 6th and arrived the 10th. How about a phone number to cover future late arrivals?

Don Chinnery to GM and others interested. Well we got it, question now is how long can we retain the presidency?

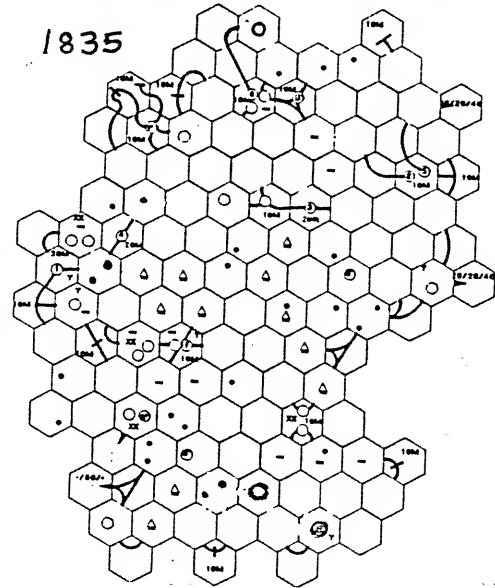

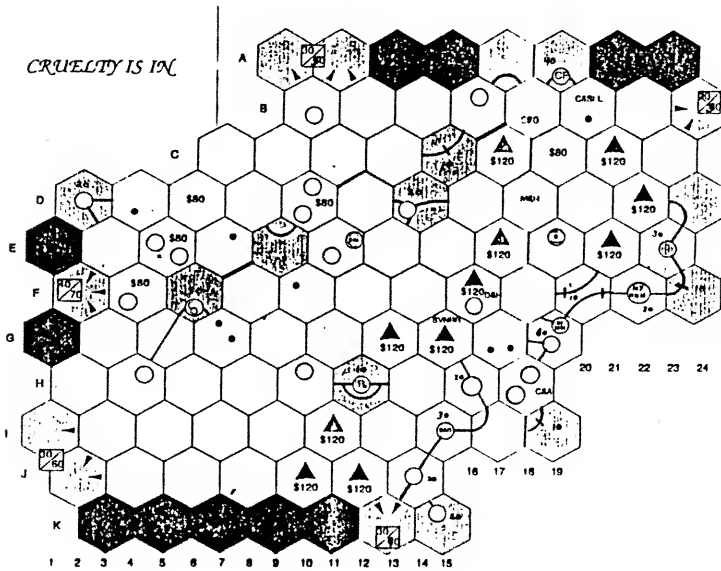

Don Chinnery to all. I will be at Origins/Gen Con in Milwaukee Aug 20-23. Will be staying at Windom with John Butitta and Al Bargender.

BORIS to Mark Frueh: Thanks for the alternate orders. Nearly had to use them too!
